It appeared probable that Mr. Wilson would cancel an engagement to go to St. Louis September 20 to speak be-fore an underwriters' convention.

Such disturbing news from Mrs. Howe's bedside was received this morning that the president and Mrs Wilson made plans for going to New London, immediately. Later in the afternoon, however, word was received that she was slightly better and Mr. postponed the trip. olding himself in readiness to go to New London at any time.

The president saw no callers today but divided his time between playing golf and working on correspondence. He plans to spend tomorrow and Monday quietly at Shadow Lawn unless he should be called to New London.
